ABOUT

Russell Moffett is a registered architect with Hood Rich Architecture. He has nearly thirteen years experience with design of Hotel facilities, multifamily residential facilities, and plan review of HUD multifamily residential facilities.

Before coming to work for Hood Rich Architecture, Russell worked for other architectural firms in Springfield, Missouri. While there, Russell gained work experience from large scale hotels and convention centers to small banking facilities. Russell also gained certification as a HUD MAP (Multi-Family Accelerated Process) Reviewer and has experience as a 3rd party plan reviewer for HUD, as well as a multi-family residential facilities inspector. Russell worked closely with clients while coordinating large scale Hotel facilities, and other architects and lending institutions with the review of Multi Family Residential projects.

Russell enjoys working with people. He enjoys problem solving and making sure the clients needs and wants are met.
